Cranleigh is a 20-minute drive, south of Guildford taking the A281 and then the B2128. It is about 45 minutes by car from Heathrow and Gatwick airports. Guildford is ten miles away where there is an express rail connection to Waterloo station in London with a journey time of 30 minutes. There is no rail link to Cranleigh, but it can be reached by bus.

From Guildford take the A281 towards Horsham following the road through Shalford, Bramley and Birtley and taking the next left to Cranleigh. Following the signs for Cranleigh you go through the High Street until you come to the junction with the Ewhurst Road (obelisk in road and petrol station on right hand side). We are next to the Esso station in the Georgian style building.

Alternative route at Shalford, take the B2128 road to Wonersh and Shamley Green and carry on this road until you come to Cranleigh. From Horsham follow A281 to Rudgwick, turn right and follow signs for Cranleigh.
